THE "TREATY PORTS OF CHIN & JAPAN," AND "NOTES AND QUEKIES ON CHINA AND JAPAN." EXTRACTS FROM REVIEWS. (From the "Friend of India," June 4, 1868. We acknowledge with thanks the receip of the numbers for the current year "Notes and Queries," a most deserving Anglo-Chinese monthly, edited by Mr N. B. Dennys, whose "Treaty Ports of China and Japan" are so well known. From the names attached to the "Notes" we can see that the contributors include some of the best Chinese scholars in the East. Its interest is not confined to China, and it will be of valuable assistance to all scholars, who have directed their attention towards the subject of Buddhism and its literature, and generally to all who are interested in oriental autiquities. . It deserves to be better known in India.

(From the "London Examiner," May This really useful volume ["Treaty Ports China and Japan"] is intended as a guido for travellers and residents in China and Japan, and as a book of reference for probable character when fire was opened mercantile men generally. It contains an account, historical and political, of all the open ports of these countries, together with Peking, Yedo, Liongkong, and Macao. has been carefully compiled and edited Mr N. B. Other chapters treating of Macao, Formesa, Ningpo, Shanghae, and the remaind r of the treaty ports, we can only enumerate. The pages describing Peking, the capital, are so interesting, and contain so much that is new to European readers respecting its history, public buildings, and general characteristics, that we would fain transfer them to our columns A complete and intelligible plan of the Imperial City and neighbourhood, gives us an accurate notion of the relative position of

The descriptions of Nagasaki, Yedo, Yokohama, and the other Treaty Ports of Japan, are as elaborate and entertaining as those of the Chinese ports. A copious index and a useful appendix containing many hints and much appropriate advice to travellers and others, is also included in the volume. The entire work affords a vast

HONGKONG, TUESDAY, NOV. 24, 1868.

A LITTLE EXCURSION.

A DELIGHTFUL illustration of the safe character of the neighbourhood of Hougkong was afforded by the adventures of the beach and were conversing as to their on them by a party of Chinese concealed behind rocks and bushes at about 300 yards distance. It was promptly returned by the foreigners, but, owing to the cover afforded by the ground to the pirates, with little result, especially as they had but two guns which carried the distance. About five minutes after the firing commenced Mr J. de Souza, who was one of the party, was struck in the neck by a musket ball. Happily the wound, though painful, was not dangerous, the bullet inflicting a flesh wound only and just missing that unpleasant part of the neck to which those who wish to cut their throats devote their efforts.

Finding that they could do nothing to the Chinese, whose position was too good to be stormed, the party very rightly withdrew out of range and returned to

Of course this little brush is of no great importance in itself beyond illustrating the character of the coast inha-bitauts. Within a few hours, a party of peaceable excursionists see a pirate junk at one place, and are fired upon at another, and this latter without giving any possible provocation. The locality is beyond Colonial jurisdiction and very possibly the only satisfaction any complaint would meet with would be some remark to the effect that "it served them right for venturing into dangerous localities." But while we have no direct power to do anything, a little event of this sort forms a good plea for urging additional exertions upon the part of the Viceroy towards suppressing piracy in the Sa-non District. It is rather too bad that one cannot venture six miles beyond the limits of Hongkong over ground daily traversed by the River Steamers without being subjected to attack. Had the party been less numerous, it is pretty certain that the pirates would have pursued them. We trust that the Naval Authorities here will do something to teach the natives of the river coast tha firing on foreigners without provocation is certain to have unpleasant results

We are no advocates for a blind and inhuman system of "revenging" upon harmless people the troubles into which adventurous foreigners may fall when they venture into dangerous neighbourhoods. But the dwellers on the coast here have a bad name amongst the Chinese themselves, and the seizure and destruction of a junk, with a very positive assurance that a village would be destroyed on the next occasion, would effect a great deal towards teaching there

Fifteen foreigners of various na tionalities, there being two Americans, ten Portuguese, one Frenchman, one Swiss and one German, set out on Saturday last on a trip to Deep Bay. They. reached Namwan and after visiting the neighbourhood set out to return. As they passed Namlong the fishermen on the beach hailed them, and pointed out a large boat which they said was a pirate, having just captured another boat : but at sight of the Europeans the craft made off round one of the outlying islands. The party coasted along, visiting a junk off Wave (20.)] Tuck-mi-chung which they fancied had All the yachts ent been captured, but which was simply deserted, and in a short time were under the shadow of Castle Peak. SATURDAY'S Gazette contains an order under the Stamp Act by which adhesive stamps may be used on cheques. Hitherto stamps on cheques were to be "impressed festly untrue. or embossed." The order does not destroy the validity of an embossed cheque, so that those persons who have a quantity of that article will not be mulcted in a penalty of forfeiture: The alteration that has been made is a sensible one. If you now get a plain cheque from a client up north it cashed by fixing the adhesive stamp but under the former regulation the cheque, being unembossed, was liable to duty as a bill of exchange. Of course the publicare indebted for this privilege to the learned Acting Attorney General of Hongkong, whose knowledge of the law relating to cheques, whether drawn to "order" or to "bearer," is very profound. In fact, it is fully equal to his discretion in the exercise of his legal credit. The stamp on bills of exchange not exceeding $100, drawn out of the Colony is to be 30 cents, in lieu of 25 cents, as previously ordered. What is there in the nature of such small bills of exchange that they should bear an additional of 20 per cent? We cannot pretend to solve this recondite mystery; but we may caution our readers to take care how they use their "adhesive" stamps. three cent adhesive stamp is sufficient for a receipt; a cheque needs only two cents. Hazeland appeared for defendant. tiff admitted that there had only been a verbal agreement, and said that no written memorandum or agreement existed on the subject. His Honor remarked that the English law did not permit the recovery of any debt from a second party unless upon some agreement in writing; he was very sorry, but plaintiff must be nonsuited. He would not give costs of attorney. Mr Hazeland objected, and said that plaintiff, having brought an action and having failed to prove any case whatever, he was entitled to costs. After some discussion, costs of attorney were allowed.

FIGHTING FITZGERALD.

The following queer exhibition of unblushing impudence is given by Walter Thornbury, in his "History of London Clubs," of that blustering and ferocious rascal, Fighting Fitzgerald, (who was once introduced to Louis XVI. as an Irishman of good descent, who had fought no less than eighteen duels and had always killed his man, ) when he forced his way into Brookes' Club, and actually succeeded in intimidating the entire body of members :-

The impudent scoundrel; who, it was afterwards found, wore steel cuirasses coats onilted with paper, had requested Admiral Keith Steward, who dared not refuse, to put him up at Brookes'. The ballot was soon over, but not even one white ball was found in the box. The Admiral refused to carry the news to such a desperate madman, and tremulous Mr. Brookes was at last sent to inform Mr. Fitzgerald black ball in the box, and that there could Brookes' damp hand : "I'm chose! GETTING A PRACTICE. - Our attention has been called to the fact that in the port of San Francisco it has become a practice for passengers from the Australian colonies to avail themselves of the help of a number of needy and unscrupulous lawyers to recover; most of their passage-money, in the shape of damages for the (alleged) defective supply of provisions during the voyage. We observe from the Alta California of July 24, that a decision has been given in the case of the barque Day Dawn, from Sydney, which will possibly help to put an end to the system, as it is the first which has been given in favour of the vessel. Captain Jones, master and part owner of the Day Dawn, sailed from Syduey for San Francisco in pril last, with 100 passengers. The ship was provisioned for ninety days, but the run was made in sixty-two. The provisions were all of good quality, excepting the pork, which was second class, but preserved meats were substituted for it. and it was used by the officers of the ship and those of the passengers who were in the cabin. As soon as the ship arrived the passengers were visited by some of the lawyers referred to, and suits were instituted for damages-the common practice being to defer proceedings until within few days of the time of the sailing of the ship, when it is usual to give bonds for the value! and leave the case in the bands of the agents. Then, the witnesses for the defence being at sea, or got out of the way The Day Dawn, however, had not been chartered to return. Captain Jones, therefore, resolved to fight the matter out. He declined a freight, and as soon as a sheriff's officer went on board, ballasted his yessel, took her out into the stream, and waited the process of the law. When the cases were heard, thirteen witnesses deposed that the beef, pork, flour, and coffee served out to them during nearly the whole voyage were of the worst quality, and wholly unfit for food. In defence, the master, the first and third mates, the surgeon, a cabin passenger, and three steerage passengers were evidence as to the good quality of the articles supplied, and specimens of the bread and coffee were produced in Court. It was also proved that the beef first sent off to the ship at Sydney was rejected by the master, and a second supply produced with great trouble. The meat was also examined in San Francisco, and pronounced good by inspectors. The case was dismissed, and as the prosecuting "lawyers" were likely to lose their costs, it is to be hoped that Captain Jones's spirited conduct will be productive of good. - Melbourne Argus, INTERESTING AND VALUABLE CURIOSITY

-A wonderful old document, says the Montreal Gazette, is at present in Canada, being nothing less that the skin or parchment signed 230 years ago, by the Scottish people, known as the "National Covensut of Scotland." THE EMPEROR IN A PET. - Letters from Plombières say that the French Emperor was in a fearfully ill-humour when he made his entrance into the town a few days back. It is said, indeed, that the general acquited himself of his mission somewhat rudely; in fact, that like Lady Macbeth at her supper, he bade the guests to "stand not upon the order of their going, but to go at once." Naturally the hungry functionaries were irritated at getting nothing to eat, and their dignity was ruffled at being dismissed in such a way.

Professor Henry, in the meeting of the Academy of Sciences at Hartford, speaking of the electric spark, said he "could judge better of the duration of the apark when seen perpendicularly than horizontally." . HOLLOWAY'S PILLS & OINTMENT HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

HIS Medicine is universally admitted in raper wrappers, at the rate of 25 cents to be the most efficacious remedy p known to the world. No preparation is so suitable to the climates of India and China as this fine and invigorating medicine. It 21 is particularly adapted to the constitution of European ladies, as it is never failing in its effects in all diseases peculiar to females, | while those who are attenuated by the debilitating effects of the above climates will find in this wonderful remedy a kind of talisman whereby they may insure a restoration to robust health.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT The science of Medicine has never before produced any remedy that can be compared to this wonderful Dintment, as it cares after all other means have failed, all wounds, sores, ulcors, and also the most inveterate skin diseases peculiar to the climates of India and China. It is the true friend of the Soldier and Civilian, as cercannot be conquered by any other treat-
